

Please do not do anything that will restrict a customer's ability to record off the air for personal use. The use of the 'broadcast flag' block that has been discussed may unduly restrict the fair and reasonable ability for a customer to record for their subsequent in-home use broadcasts of HDTV. I am not an advocate of piracy at all. But I do not want the anti-piracy concerns to trample our basic rights and use of technology in reasonable situations.